Foreword

OF the great national playgrounds on this continent, Jasper National Park, in the Canadian Rockies, is pre-eminent. Within its boundaries embracing 4,200 square miles, is a veritable empire of virgin loveliness offering every attraction for the vacationist.

Above the jagged rim of the universe, peak after peak lifts a high white plume in salute to the sky. From every point of the compass they raise their gallant heads far above the earth. There are uncounted numbers of them and many are unnamed. Between them stretch mile upon mile of alpine meadows in whose wind-blown grasses gay flowers paint the world in color borrowed from the rainbows. Endless green forests cushion their lower slopes and overflow the deep, verdant valleys to nurse along their new found routes young rivers which have found life in the tears of dying glaciers. Up in the alpland meadows, higher still upon lonesome rocky ledges and nestling among the forests of the valleys, like jewels scattered by a careless hand, countless lakes flash back through facets cut from emerald, sapphire, amethyst and jade, a jaunty retort to the sun. From crag and peak, through forest and valley, waterfalls leap in a sheen of silver and a burst of diamond spray.

In this majestic setting, shaded by pine, spruce and douglas fir, stands Jasper Park Lodge, its lovely lawns and tree girt walks mirrored in exquisite Lac Beauvert.

Jasper is a sparkling world. No pen can picture it, no brush can catch its colors. But in the hearts of those who see it, its beauty lives forever.

HISTORICAL AND PHYSICAL FEATURES

THERE ARE THOSE who have been coming to Jasper each year since 1922 and count themselves pioneers. In a sense they are right. It was not until the Lodge was opened in the Spring of that year that the Park began to attain its present popularity although it had been set aside as a national playground in 1907 and a handful of people had lived there in the interval.

Yet, a hundred years before these outsiders of the Twentieth Century parade of tourists found Jasper, other men with other purposes moved along these valleys, scaled peaks, discovered passes and traced rivers to their sources in the lips of glaciers. Their moccasined feet and the unshod hoofs of Indian ponies fashioned trails in the stony earth of these mountains that fresher feet still follow or which have been used by engineers to plot the routes of highways along which motor cars move smoothly to many points within the Park.

Traders and trappers; miners and monks; explorers and engineers; voyageurs and adventurers were in these processions of pioneers who wound their way southward around the base of La Montagne de la Grande Traverse (now Mount Edith Cavell) up the Athabaska and Whirlpool Rivers, across the Great Divide and down the Wood and Columbia Rivers to Oregon and the coast. Later ones turned westward through the Yellowhead Pass to the Fraser and Thompson Rivers to reach the Pacific at Vancouver.

There were among them men whose names have enriched history. Thompson, Franchere, Simpson, Douglas, Hector and de Smet are a few. Not least is the mysterious little man from Missouri, born Jasper Hawes, who followed the fortunes of the Northwest Trading Company to a post in what is now Jasper and was destined to have his name bequeathed to the largest playground in the world.

There are 4,200 square miles in Jasper National Park. All of this area, which is slightly larger than Connecticut, is situated in the middle of the Canadian Rockies along the western slope of Alberta. It is served by the Canadian National Railways whose air-conditioned, modern trains make it easily accessible through Winnipeg and Edmonton in the east and Vancouver and Prince Rupert in the west. Within this vast territory there are only two centres of population. One is the town of Jasper which contains Park Administration Headquarters, the Mounted Police Barracks and the homes of residents who are engaged largely in trade or the affairs of the railway. The other is Jasper Park Lodge, four miles by motor road. It is open from June 15th to September 15th and it forms the centre of the cultural, social and recreational life of the summer colony.

The Town and Lodge are set down in the centre of a vast amphitheatre which is known as the Athabaska Valley. Fed by many streams finding birth in melting snows, the Athabaska River threads a winding course through the forests of this great bowl around which an almost complete circle of high mountain ranges has formed a protective bulwark. These peaks are as varied as they are numerous. Cutting into the eastern sky is the knife-like crest of the steel-grey Colin Range whose drabness serves to accentuate the vividness of Pyramid Mountain to the northwest, a peak whose slopes are shot through with browns, maroons, purples, blues and reds. Southeast, beyond the round, bald pate of Signal Mountain, the rough bastion of Tekarra mopes in martial pique upon a world consecrated to peace. Trailing it are Hardisty and Kerkeslin, the latter looking like something transplanted from an Oriental print. Far up the valley towards the source of the Whirlpool River, Fryatt and Christie put their silvered heads together like two old cronies swapping yarns. Southwest, the friendly slopes of The Whistlers edge in the valley and beyond them, almost due south, in regal isolation, rises the stately, matchless form of Mount Edith Cavell.

Of course there is much of Jasper beyond this Valley, indeed within the far reaches of the Valley itself. This is only what may be seen in panorama from the Town or the Lodge. The motor roads disappearing into the forests or winding up the mountain sides and the wandering trails that stretch their slender threads beyond the peaks, over the passes, across alpine meadows and along a thousand valleys within this great park, reveal its full beauty.

No one man has yet seen all of Jasper. Pioneers visited this region in the Nineteenth Century; there are others to-day and it may well be that there will be others in the next. But none has been or shall be disappointed. Jasper never disappoints.

JASPER PARK LODGE

THE men who designed Jasper Park Lodge created a masterpiece.

Using only the simple materials of the nearby mountains and forests, they fashioned a summer resort which achieves the miracle of combining luxury with simplicity, of having spaciousness without bulk, and which is as much a part of its surroundings as are the trees and the peaks. It is hard to believe that in the modest-looking bungalows tucked among the trees or facing the broad lawns that flow eagerly down to the shore of Lac Beauvert, there is ample accommodation for six hundred and fifty guests. It is harder still to realize that within their hospitable doors, these bungalows provide every comfort and convenience that a discriminating traveler could expect. Yet, it's so.

The Lodge consists of a large main building containing the administrative offices and the public rooms, and from it the bungalows radiate in fan formation along paved walks that are generously and attractively landscaped. The bungalows vary in size from one suite to sixteen rooms. All are complete in every detail with telephone, electric light, heat, hot and cold running water in every room. Most of the rooms are equipped with bath or shower and there are one or more detached baths in every bungalow.

The front of the Main Lodge provides a view over the wide, velvety lawns, flower beds and rock garden, to Lac Beauvert, one of the most beautiful lakes in the Rockies. It is around this lake that the bungalows are situated. It is a small lake but its coloration is a source of interest and delight. When the skies are clear, the water is almost an aquamarine. When passing clouds trail their shadows across it, bands of color sweep its surface until it glows like an opal. Comfortable chairs, beneath gay umbrellas, dot the lawns and are found at vantage points along the shore.

Beyond Beauvert the view discloses the soft symmetry of the Whistler Range, the glacier and snow-tipped crown of Mount Edith Cavell and the long penetration of the upper Athabaska Valley among the peaks. To the right stands the painted escarpment of Pyramid Mountain and to the left, the castellated summit of Tekarra. Behind the Lodge rise the wolf-grey walls of the Colin Range with the figure of the Old Man recumbent athwart its crest. Masses of brilliantly-colored flowers among the lawns contrast vividly with the sternness of the peaks and the contrast serves to accentuate the beauty of both. Tall shrubs hide the outline of the open-air heated swimming pool by the lake in front of the lodge, but do not screen from view the graceful flight of the divers. This pool has a railed-off, wading end for children.]

There are a limited number of bedrooms in the large central building, or the main lodge, as it is usually called. This building, however, is meant almost entirely for the use of all the guests. In it are located the huge lounge with its two great log-burning fireplaces, the ball room, dining room, snack room, tavern, barber shop, beauty parlor, shops, reservation desk and other facilities which are a standard part of any modern hotel. The dining room can seat 400 guests at a sitting and 300 people can dance comfortably in the ball room.

The hostess arranges introductions, organizes picnics and other entertainment for the children and provides assurance that each guest's visit to the Lodge will be pleasant. A fully equipped medical department with a doctor and trained nurse constantly on duty is maintained at the Lodge.

A Custom's Officer is stationed at the Lodge so that guests arriving with bonded baggage may have it examined there at leisure.

In addition to the golfing facilities which are described elsewhere in this booklet, the Lodge also has several excellent tennis courts and maintains a fleet of rowboats and canoes for use on the lake. Qualified guides can be secured for alpinists, providing sufficient advance notice is given.

No description of Jasper Park Lodge would be complete without a word about its food and dining room service, for both of which it is justly famous. Only the best food available is served and the menu always offers a wide choice of dishes. Quick, pleasant and intelligent service in the dining room is given by a corps of smart waitresses, most of whom are college students. Music is provided during the dinner hour by an excellent orchestra which also plays dance music in the ball room each night except Sundays.

GOLF

THE JASPER PARK LODGE GOLF COURSE is rated among the truly great courses of the world by experts whose opinions are respected.

The first tee rests invitingly just two hundred yards from the main building of the lodge. The eighteenth green spreads its emerald lap about one hundred feet from the first tee. In between stretch four of the grandest miles of tees, fairways and greens that any golfer has set eyes on. The fairways are gently undulating. And there isn't a puff on the layout; although the course is set down right in the heart of the Rockies amid scenery that makes it hard for players to keep their eye on the ball, there isn't an uphill drag worthy of the name over the whole route.

There are a number of reasons why Jasper Park Lodge Golf Course has won a high rating. It is a championship course in every sense of the term. No two holes have the same length. No two have the same character. There is a shot for every club in the bag and never a chance for a good player to ease up. There is no rough between the tee and the fairway; it is fairway from tee to green. The course is skillfully bunkered, the greens, in some instances, almost diabolically trapped, but because these hazards have been designed to penalize the low handicap player who is off line on his drives or short on his approaches, the average golfer who is in Seventh Heaven if he breaks a hundred, can have a grand time at Jasper. The course is always in perfect condition. The Greenskeeper has been awarded the highest honor in its power to bestow by the P.G.A.—Life Membership in the Greenskeepers' Union—because of the unfailing excellence of his greens and fairways.

There are three water holes. One is the tenth and the water there is filled with speckled trout who do their best to disturb a tee shot by leaping about in the pool. The second is the fourteenth, a tricky drive across an arm of Lac Beauvert. The third is the sixteenth where the green is trapped by an inlet of the same lake and except in rare instances is out of sight from where an approach shot is being played.

There are other hazards, too, none of them designed by the architect who mapped the course. At any moment a bear or two may saunter from the woods and meander across the fairway. A deer and fawn or even an elk, now and then, may block an approach shot to the green and the player who lands in the rough may have to shoo a porcupine up a tree before he can make a recovery. Occasionally, beaver prove an added distraction at the fourteenth and sixteenth water holes, and a Cow bird or Buffalo bird hopping nonchalantly across your line of drive may increase the difficulty of a drive from several tees, notably the seventh and eighth. But at least there will be some consolation in knowing that such hazards don't exist on any other golf course and that if you wait long enough they'll move away of their own accord. That's more than can be said of a bunker.

While every week at Jasper is a great golf week, Totem Pole Week is the greatest of all. This is scheduled always for early September and it attracts one of the friendliest crowds of people to be found under one roof anywhere at any time. That week the Lodge is like a club and everyone has a grand time whether he plays or merely talks a good game. Principal event of the week is the championship flight for the Totem Pole Trophy, one of the most unique prizes offered for tournament play in the world. But that is only one of many events. For four of the seven days of the tournament every competitor, man or woman—and there is a wide selection of events for women—has a chance for a prize. In that particular also, golf at Jasper differs from golf elsewhere.

A map showing layout and contour from tee to green, helps you plan your play of the hole.

MOTORING

A PART FROM THE COLUMBIA ICEFIELD HIGHWAY, which is presented in detail on pages 18 to 21, there are a number of attractive motor routes in Jasper National Park. These roads have an approximate length of 200 miles within the park proper and several extend beyond it.

Deservedly popular is the drive to Mount Edith Cavell. Starting at the Lodge, this road rises several thousand feet in its length of twenty miles to the foot of the glacier which clings to the breast of the peak. Four rivers, the Athabaska, Miette, Astoria and Portal Creek are crossed during the trip. The views up the Whirlpool River Valley and both up and down the Athabaska Valley are particularly fine.

The drive to Punch Bowl Falls and Miette Hot Springs is another favorite. This highway hugs the Athabaska River most of the way down the valley, following a route that is important historically and which provides continuous views of large numbers of striking peaks. It offers, also, probably the best animal pictures to be had on any motor drive.

An interesting drive from the Lodge is that known as "General Drive" to Maligne Canyon, a wide, deep chasm into which the Maligne River drops almost out of sight, thence to the foot of Pyramid Mountain, and through Jasper town on the return.

(Further detailed information on pages 30 to 32, 42)

MALIGNE LAKE

Maligne, largest glacial lake in the Canadian Rockies, belies its name. Serene and lovely, it extends eighteen miles from Maligne Lake Chalet. On either side and rising sheer 10,000 feet or more, are majestic peaks—Sampson, The Thumb, Charlton and Unwin, Warren, Mary Vaux, whose charm artists try in vain to picture.

The widened trail from Medicine Lake now serves as a road, making it possible to reach Maligne Lake comfortably in a horse-drawn surrey, or, if preferred, astride a mountain pony. From Jasper Park Lodge to Medicine Lake the journey is made by motor.

FISHING

TIGHT LINES AND HAPPY LANDINGS! That's a toast that anglers realize in Jasper—for here is a plenitude of game fish—trout of various species, Eastern Brook, Dolly Varden and Rainbow—in waters particularly suited to them, cold glacial lakes and tumbling mountain streams. And between casts even the most ardent sportsman may pause to marvel at his surroundings, for no other region on the continent offers a more arresting combination of woods and water and lofty peaks.

The Maligne region is noted for the sport it offers. Here Eastern Brook (speckled) Trout were planted a number of years ago and now they are found in Maligne and nearby lakes and in the Maligne River where pools and white water alternate over its length of ten miles from the pool at the outlet of Maligne Lake to where it empties into Medicine Lake. If added inducement were necessary it is found in the Gold Button of the Maligne River Anglers' Club, awarded for the year's largest Speckled Trout taken with the fly.

Jasper's well stocked lakes and streams afford excellent fishing for Dolly Varden, Speckled and Rainbow Trout. Note these catches from Tonquin and Maligne waters.

In Jacques Lake Dolly Varden trout are found, and in a number of lakes in the Athabaska Valley are Rainbows and Speckled Trout. Rainbow Trout are also taken in Hardisty Creek, but the best fishing for this fighter is to be had in Tonquin Valley waters, Amethyst and Moat Lakes and connecting and feeder streams. Fish here run up to three pounds in weight. This region is reached by motor and trail from Jasper and rare sport is assured.

These mountain trout are susceptible, as are all their brothers wherever they may be found, to the vagaries of wind and the barometer but normally they strike the flies used in lower altitudes.

A permit is required for fishing in Jasper National Park. This can be obtained from the Park Wardens at cost of $2.25 per person. Arrangements for fishing trips can be made in advance, or at the Transportation Desk in the Main Lodge after arrival at Jasper.

Further detailed information on page 37.

TRAIL RIDING

OUTSTANDING among numerous trail trips available at Jasper is the Columbia Skyline Trail, a seven day trip that begins at Camp Parker about eight miles south of the Athabaska Glacier and then cuts through the wild, back country of the Rockies for ninety miles to the Lodge. Six days are spent in the saddle and one day at the Maligne Lake Chalet. See page 35 for additional information.

Most of the route is at an elevation of some 6000 feet and several times the trail crosses the ridges of high passes at an elevation of nearly 9000 feet. Permanent camps have been established along the route at points approximately 15 miles apart so that no day's ride is too arduous.

Much of the trail lies above timber line, in wide alpine meadows where many varieties of flowers bloom in great profusion. In Nigel, Jonas and Poboktan Passes, the trail climbs slowly to the high crests which mark the dividing line between the southern and northern slopes and from these skylines vast panoramas are unfolded to the eye.

Astride or afoot on the trails, through the passes and along the skyline, the mountains become more impressive, more intimate.

The final day's ride carries one across the knifelike ridge of a shoulder of Mount Tekarra from which it is possible to see nearly 100 miles in three directions, and finally to the top of Signal Mountain at whose feet is spread the wide expanse of the lower Athabaska Valley.

Among the short saddle trips, the new Jasper Park Lodge Circle Ride, 12 miles in length, encircling the Lodge area, is the most popular. It follows along the Athabaska River, through pine and alder groves and up over a shoulder of Old Fort Point to gain a marvellous panoramic view of the broad valley, the golf course and the surrounding mountains. The trail is broad enough for three riders to ride abreast; rocks and roots have been removed over the entire distance, and a portion of the trail has been covered with a special sawdust coating which assures a dustless and pleasant ride. Excellent saddle horses are available, and a choice of English or Western saddle. "Breakfast rides" and trail picnics are arranged; a hot meal is cooked and eaten on the trail.

Many other saddle trips may be enjoyed in the vicinity of Jasper.

COLUMBIA ICEFIELD

THE COLUMBIA ICEFIELD, one of the most stupendous sights of the world, is the largest accessible glacial deposit on the continent south of the Arctic. It strews itself in splendid disarray over 110 square miles of mountain area and from its breast bounteous life pours forth to give being to streams which, choosing three separate pathways, nurture three great rivers, each flowing to a separate sea.

Few of the thousands of tourists who visited the mountains had been able to see this impressive area until the completion of the motor road from Jasper. Now anyone who wishes to do so may cover, in a few pleasant hours, the distance between Jasper and the Athabaska Glacier, in the heart of the Icefield, which previously required a ten day trip in the saddle.

It is wild and gorgeous country this new motor road traverses from Jasper. No highway anywhere affords such an overwhelming burst of grandeur as does this, as, 70 miles south of Jasper, it swings past the Athabaska, Snow Dome, Kitchener and other glaciers, whose long hoary fingers hold the mountain fast within their frigid grip. It is a truly astonishing sight.

The route of this highway begins in tranquility. Leaving the Lodge it follows the Mount Edith Cavell road a little way and then bends gently downward through an avenue in the forest to the centre of the valley where the wedding of the waters of the Athabaska and Whirlpool Rivers takes place. It follows, for a distance, up the Whirlpool, then crosses the height of land to join the Athabaska again.

Here is sensed, for the first time, the turmoil of Nature that is to come, for at this point the Athabaska, in one mad turbulent leap, hurls itself a hundred feet or more into a chasm. Continuing, deep quiet woods enfold the road again until it comes upon the Sunwapta River where its waters leap into space even more madly than those of the Athabaska.

From there the road climbs gradually to timberline. Following the Sunwapta to its source, the highway enters a vast amphitheatre hemmed by giant peaks, Diadem and Woolley, both over 11,000 feet, Mount Stutfield, 11,320 feet, and Mount Kitchener, 11,500 feet, whose walls rise sheer to its lofty crest,—sky-shattering peaks whose gleaming crests provide a promise of the beauty that is to come.

Out of this great bowl there seems to be no escape for the road. Its way appears to be blocked by an impenetrable wall of rock but it eludes this barrier by switch-backing through the forest and emerges to present in all its startling reality the incredible pageantry of the Columbia Icefield.

Where, before, isolated ice caps were to be seen upon the mountains, now gigantic glaciers invade the valley, sweep up the slopes and, in an ecstasy of triumph, plant their gleaming standards on the crests. It is a sight which no one who has seen it will forget. To the right, a sheer precipice of ice, hundreds of feet thick, covers the whole top of Snow Dome. Nearby, a river of ice is draped like a silver cape over the shoulders of Mount Kitchener. Everywhere the eye looks, gleaming peaks pierce the sky.

But it is ahead that the full glory of this matchless view is unfolded. There facing the new Columbia Icefield Chalet stands Mount Athabaska. From its peak to its base it is covered with a tremendous glittering glacier so tremendous in its scope that it is breathtaking. From the far reaches of the great Columbia Icefield this glacier stems, sweeping across the crest of the mountain, surging like breakers against its slopes, then forming itself into a huge, solid mass to advance in a wide, sweeping curve into the valley.

Five miles beyond the Athabaska Glacier the road crosses the southern boundary of Jasper National Park and continues to Lake Louise, a distance of 71 miles. Thus the Columbia Icefield Drive may be enjoyed as a motor tour from Jasper Park Lodge, or, as indicated on page 43, it may be incorporated in a round trip rail and motor tour of Jasper and Banff National Parks.

See page 31 for additional information.

CLIMBING

JASPER PARK offers an almost bewildering choice to the Alpine climber. Over seventy per cent of the highest peaks in the Canadian Rockies are found either within the boundaries of the Park or can be reached with Jasper as a starting point.

For many years, even prior to the time when it was set aside as a national playground, the peerless possibilities of Jasper for mountain climbers have been recognized and most of the world's outstanding alpinists have, at one time or another, visited the Park. In some instances they have come as individuals and in others as groups and the effect of their achievements is noticeable in the nomenclature of the area.

However, it will be many years before the mountain climbing possibilities of Jasper have been explored fully. While hundreds of peaks have been scaled there are many hundreds upon whose crests no man has yet set foot and while many of the mountains are named, there are still many which are not. Particularly appealing to alpinists are those sections of Jasper which may be described roughly as the Columbia Icefield, the Whirlpool River sector, the Tonquin Valley and the Maligne Lake district. All of these areas have something different to offer the mountaineer.

Providing sufficient notice is given, experienced guides will be obtained for parties desirous of mountain climbing.

Alpinists find in Jasper National Park unscaled peaks to tax their skill and courage.

BIG GAME AND CAMERA HUNTING

TODAY, many people think it is more fun to hunt with a camera than with a rifle. For those who are so disposed there are camera trophies without number to be had in Jasper. This playground is also a game reservation and its friendly boundaries provide a haven for many types of wild animals, from perky little rock rabbits—the only animal in the world to cure its own hay—to inquisitive, nomadic caribou; from industrious beaver to foraging grizzlies; from soft-eyed deer to wary mountain goat. In between can be included marmots; big horn sheep; coyotes; moose; elk; black and brown bears; squirrels; chipmunks; and the smaller fur bearers: the martin, otter, fisher and mink.

The varieties of birds are equally numerous. Infinite numbers of flowers are everywhere. All about is superb scenery. Already one world's champion amateur motion picture has been made in Jasper. There are many more to be taken.

The natural overflow of wild life into the unprotected areas beyond the boundaries of the park make Jasper one of the most popular jumping off points for big game hunters. Some of the finest heads on view in several of the large Museums of Natural History in the United States were secured by sportsmen hunting out of Jasper.

Game animals may be seen from the trails and motor roads in this vast game sanctuary. Below: Mountain Goat, Mountain Sheep. Right: Mule Deer, Caribou, Beaver.

WHAT TO WEAR

At the Lodge—The question of what to wear is entirely a matter of personal desire; no set rule is followed. While some ladies wear formal dress for dinner and dancing, others dress informally. Gentlemen usually wear flannels and sack coat; dinner jackets are seldom worn.

Because of the altitudes of Jasper National Park, the summer evenings are usually cool. To ensure comfort, visitors should bring with them a medium-weight Spring and Fall coat, or wrap.

For Motoring—In addition to a medium-weight coat or wrap, gloves, and coloured glasses add to the comfort of a drive. Low-heeled shoes are recommended for those who wish to explore points of interest at the scheduled stops along the drives.

For Riding or for Trail Trips—It is very important that visitors who intend to hike or ride the trails bring with them suitable clothing, including riding or hiking boots, woollen stockings or socks, woollen jacket or sweater, heavy breeches, flannel or mackinaw shirt, slicker, gloves, and suitable hat or cap. On camping trips, personal effects are limited to 20 pounds per person. Regular camping equipment, supplied by the Outfitter, does not include personal accessories, such as towels, soap, slickers, etc. No responsibility will be assumed for the loss of valuables or personal equipment on the trail.

SIGHTSEEING MOTOR DRIVES

NOTE: Starting point of all sightseeing motor drives—Main Entrance, Jasper Park Lodge.

Departure hours and schedules for these drives have been carefully planned to permit visitors to view without haste the scenic wonders of the Park.

No. 1: General Drive—Twenty-eight miles return. Motors leave the Lodge at 10.00 a.m. and 3.15 p.m. Time, approximately 2½ hours. Cost per person, $3.00. This drive embraces a wide variety of valley, lake, canyon, and mountain scenery. The route, after following the Athabaska River, skirts Lakes Annette and Edith before gradually ascending the roadway to Maligne Canyon. From this vantage point the tourist stands in awe before the snow-capped grandeur of lordly mountains and the mighty sweep of the Athabaska Valley, which loses itself in endless vistas of Alpine beauty. Maligne Canyon, a tremendous gorge descending to a depth of 188 feet, and remarkable for its potholes, is a never-ending source of wonder and amazement. On the return journey the tourist again meets the Athabaska River and crosses it to join the Main Highway to Jasper, where he gets a glimpse of "the Raven", one of the largest totem-poles in existence. Continuing along to the foot of Pyramid Mountain and passing en route Lakes Patricia and Pyramid, the drive again runs through Jasper before terminating at the Lodge.

No. 2: Maligne Canyon—Twelve miles return. Motors leave the Lodge at 10.00 a.m. and 3.15 p.m. Time, approximately 1½ hours. Cost per person, $2.00—This canyon, where the Maligne River plunges through a gorge 188 feet deep, ranks among the most extraordinary and interesting in the Canadian Rockies. The route lies over a gradually ascending roadway from which the tourist obtains magnificent views of lordly mountains and charming vistas of the Athabaska Valley.

No. 3: Punch Bowl Falls—"A Twilight Drive"—Sixty miles return. Motors leave the Lodge at 7.00 p.m. Time, approximately 3 hours. Cost per person, $3.50—The route is over the Athabaska River, and follows the completed section of the new Inter-Provincial Highway to Punch Bowl Falls and Valley. This trip affords a very wide variety of mountain scenery and is highly recommended as an evening drive. At this time of day (after sunset) the animal life frequent the numerous lakes and streams in this region, and it is usually possible to see sheep, goats, deer, bears, moose, etc., from the motor-car. Return to the Lodge in ample time to enjoy dancing, bridge, etc.

No. 4: Glacier of the Angel (Mount Edith Cavell)—Forty miles return. Motors leave the Lodge at 9.30 a.m. and 3.15 p.m. Time, approximately 3 hours. Cost per person, $4.00—This drive affords good motoring and, by a course of wide-sweeping switchbacks, reaches an altitude of nearly 2,000 feet above the floor of the valley and gives the tourist an ever-changing series of striking and beautiful panoramas. The highway terminates at the foot of the famous glacier and affords an excellent view of this great field of living ice. Light lunch and refreshments can be obtained at the Tea Room near the foot of the Glacier.

No. 5: Miette Hot Springs and Fiddle River Canyon—Eighty miles return. Motors leave the Lodge at 9.00 a.m. Time, approximately 4 hours. Cost per person, $6.00. The route, after skirting the shore of Lake Mildred, follows the Athabaska River, which it crosses to join the Inter-Provincial Highway, whence it extends for miles down the floor of the Athabaska Valley to Jasper Lake and beyond to Punch Bowl Falls, where a stop is made to view this unique waterfall. From here it follows the rim of the Fiddle River Canyon for another eleven miles, finally reaching the famous Miette Hot Springs. At this point, hot sulphur spring water, varying in temperature from 79 to 128 degrees F., comes boiling out of the mountain side. Motors will remain long enough to permit bathing in the pool.

The Miette Hot Springs consist of three main springs which issue from the rocks along the banks of Sulphur Creek for a distance of a few hundred yards. The springs are not volcanic in character, but owe their heat to chemical action, caused by surface water coming in contact with certain minerals in the rock formation, which is principally limestone. The combined flow of the three springs is approximately 170,000 gallons every 24 hours.

The Swimming Pool and the Steam Baths at Miette Hot Springs are operated by the National Parks Department. The rates are:

Swimming Pool—When bathing suit and towel are supplied by the Department: adults, 35c.; children, 25c. When bathing suit and towel are supplied by bather: adults 25c.; children, 15c. Steam and Plunge Baths—50c. per person.

No. 6: Columbia Icefield (Jasper-Banff Highway)—One hundred and fifty miles return. Motors leave the Lodge at 9.00 a.m. Time, approximately 7 hours. Cost per person, $10.00. Minimum, 5 persons. A picnic lunch will be served en route; this is free of charge to passengers who are guests of Jasper Park Lodge. This drive follows the route of the Mount Edith Cavell Drive to a point beyond the crossing of the Astoria River, whence it continues along the valley of the Athabaska. From here the route is through the very heart of the Canadian Rockies to the largest and most impressive icefield outside the Arctic Circle. "Mother of Rivers" it is called. The waters of its melting glaciers travel thousands of miles to three oceans,—the Atlantic, the Pacific, and the Arctic. The area of this icefield is estimated at 110 square miles and the average elevation is between 9,000 and 10,000 feet.

The Station Agent at Jasper will make arrangements for railway patrons, who are not guests of the Lodge, to be taken from the station, in motors marked "Jasper Park Lodge", on any of the scheduled drives Nos. 1 to 6, inclusive. Regular rates will apply. A stop will be made at the Lodge.

MALIGNE LAKE

Among the unending variety of magnificent beauty spots in Jasper National Park, visitors will find Maligne Lake one of the most exquisite.

Maligne Chalet, commanding a full view of the lake whose name it bears, is situated on a low plateau at the outlet. Before the Chalet, and extending in a south-easterly direction for seventeen miles, with a breadth varying from two hundred yards to two miles and a shore line of some fifty miles, lies the largest glacial-fed lake in the Canadian Rockies.

Beginning with Mount Samson, (a jagged peak, ten thousand feet high, facing the Chalet on the left), the altitude of the peaks forming the Maligne group (Mounts Charlton, Unwin, Warren, Mary Vaux, and Maligne) increases until, in Mount Brazeau, it reaches a height of eleven thousand, three hundred and eighty feet.

The mountains rise precipitously from the lake and are heavily laden with snow and ice. At the south-west end of the lake, farthest from the Chalet, lies a snowfield of considerable size, and leading in a southerly direction towards the Brazeau River district, along the western base of Mount Brazeau, is a high, broad snow pass, affording easy access to this very interesting neighbourhood. The mountains in the Maligne Lake district are admirably suited to both ice and rock climbing, and many comparatively easy climbs may be successfully undertaken by the amateur.

The mountains, meadows, and flowers of the alplands will prove of great interest to botanist and naturalist alike. Sheep, goats.

caribou, moose, and deer, frequent these pastures. The Opal Hills, facing the Chalet on the east, are the home of the sheep and the goat, while the mountain sides overlooking the lake, particularly those about the south-east, are used extensively by the mountain goat as a summer pasture.

What to do at Maligne Lake

The nature lover, the artist, those seeking relaxation in quiet surroundings, will find Maligne Lake a real haven.

Ride or hike to Maligne Pass, to the top of the Opal Hills, or to the haunt of the caribou at the summit of Bald Mountain.

Take canoe, rowboat, or outboard motor boat trips on the lake, also a scenic motor boat trip to the upper end of Maligne Lake, 34 miles return.

Fish for speckled trout in Maligne Lake, Mona Lake, and Maligne River.

Arrangements can be made for summer skiing by applying to Fred Brewster's Rocky Mountain Camps Limited.

SKIING

THRILLING, EXHILARATING holidays await those who choose the winter and spring months for their vacations in Jasper National Park. Each year, increasing numbers spend two weeks or more at timberline chalets under snow-clad mountains where skiing is comparable and often superior to that of the best winter resorts of Europe. For above the timberline at Jasper are literally miles of open alplands, huge snow-basins where the skiing terrain not only provides a countless variety of runs for the expert but actually facilitates the progress of a novice and adds to his enjoyment. In this farthest-north National Park perfect powder snow conditions blend with longer days and brilliant sunshine for a holiday no skier will forget.

Names of skiing areas such as Tonquin, Maligne, Whistlers, Columbia Icefield, Cavell and Shovel Pass are becoming familiar to skiers the continent over. Jasper, too, is becoming firmly established as a summer skiing centre, the combination of skiing and such sports as golf and swimming carrying irresistible appeal for many enthusiasts. Even July and August find devotees of skiing testing their turns in summer snow and under the warmth of the mid-year sun.

Accessibility is the keynote of Jasper's best-known winter and spring skiing area. Skiers arriving in the picturesque alpine village aboard Canadian National trains from either East or West ride by automobile, snowmobile and horse-drawn sleigh to the very door of Maligne Lake Chalet in its fairyland mountain setting 34 miles away. They reach the fine log building, with accommodation for 25 guests, in time for the evening meal without having to trek a step on their own. Once at Maligne, the skiing is unlimited. Behind the Chalet are two practise slopes, while above tower the friendly domes of the Bald and Opal Mountains. From their summits are long, sweeping downhill runs, beginning with a mile or more over long open slalom stretches of the alplands, finishing off with a timber course to the Chalet. Even the lower slopes offer variety and thrills for the experienced skiers or beginners.

Part of the Maligne Lake terrain is Trappers' Valley, first made accessible to skiers in the spring of 1940. Only six miles from the Chalet at Maligne is this new resort with comfortable accommodation for 12 persons. Flush on timberline at an altitude of 6,500 feet, Trappers boasts vast alplands within five minutes skiing from the camp. This, too, is ideal country for the European type of ski touring.

Tours from one day's duration to two weeks head out from Maligne Lake Chalet, leading over magnificent skylines where skiing is unsurpassed.

At the alpine town of Jasper itself is some of the finest skiing of the Rockies. Only a few minutes from the railway, reached either by ski trail or by motor car, the Jasper Ski Club has a very interesting ski run on the north slope of The Whistlers, some 3,000 yards in length, and with a vertical drop of approximately 2,700 feet. Whistlers, too, is the gateway to the famous Tonquin Valley where the Alpine Club of Canada meets for annual ski camps. Here, too, is the sweep of the Fraser Glacier, a mile-wide snowfield, dropping 3,500 feet in more than three miles. In this area are undulating alplands of the Eremite and the powder snow of Surprise Point and Para Glacier. Right at the foot of the Para and Fraser the Alpine Club maintains a winter headquarters while at Amethyst Lake, under the majestic Ramparts and Surprise Peak, is the Brewster Chalet.

Popular also during the winter and spring months, the slopes of Mount Edith Cavell entertain a host of skiers during June and much of July as fine summer snow is available only a half-hour's easy walk from the end of the highway leading to the impressive moraine formations at the toe of Glacier of the Angel. At the Columbia Icefield skiing usually is excellent on the lower slopes, only 15 minutes from the end of the highway, until mid-July. Later in the year, during the latter part of July and August, there is superb skiing in the huge snowbasins of Mount Athabaska and the upper Icefield where Snow Dome, Kitchener, Columbia and other of the massive peaks tower over snowfields miles in extent. For the skiing mountaineer this and the Maligne Lake terrain are particularly adaptable, as the summer skiing is often combined with rock climbing and exploration of the myriads of interesting glacial formations of the region.

MOUNT ROBSON PARK

THIS BEAUTIFUL AND OUTSTANDING SCENIC AREA in the heart of the Canadian Rockies contains over 800 square miles of awe inspiring grandeur. Directly adjoining America's largest mountain playground, Jasper National Park, it is easily reached by Canadian National main line Transcontinental Service.

Dominating this British Columbia forest reserve is Mount Robson, the King of the Rockies, rearing its imponderable mass 12,972 feet above sea level. Enroute to it from Mount Robson Station every mile of the winding trail opens up new vistas or brings within the range of vision new glories in hanging glaciers and silver streams tumbling from dizzy heights and more distant peaks.

The Tumbling Glacier and the ice-filled basin from which it flows extend back from the pass summit for some five miles along the eastern flank of the mountain and are known as the Robson Cirque. The wonderful creations of ice and snow there accumulated justly constitute it one of the wonders of the Canadian Rockies, and its fame has gone far and wide.

Hargreaves Bros. maintain Bungalow camps at Mount Robson and Berg Lake, as well as a complete outfit of sure-footed mountain horses and capable guides to handle the Trail Rider over miles of established trails into beautiful scenic areas.

Mount Robson Dude Ranch is located within a few hundred yards of Mount Robson and Emperor, B.C. stations. At this Ranch the visitor may obtain, at reasonable rates, real home-like and modern accommodation. If desired a most restful entire vacation could be spent here or, for the more active, riding, hiking and climbing can be arranged. Should the visitor decide to ride the trails, this is the starting point for a variety of saddle trips to scenic areas. Outstanding among these trips is the one to Berg Lake Bungalow Camp, and Tumbling Glacier, a distance of approximately 16 miles.

Detailed information in regard to Mount Robson district may be secured and reservations and all arrangements may be made at the Transportation Desk, Jasper Park Lodge.
